TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. This Show is being conducted under the RAS Rules and Regulations.
2. The Amount of expenses shown overleaf is subject to approval in advance by the Convenor of the Society conducting the Show.
3. The Judge is to advise the Convenor whether or not this invitation is accepted. If the reply is not received by the Convenor within 21 days of the date of the offer it will have been deemed lapsed.
4. The Judge's accommodation and/or expenses are to be confirmed by the Convenor within a reasonable time of the date of acceptance.
5. Air & Other Travel - in the absence of any different specification a Judge is entitled to most appropriate discounted economy return air travel. (NB: The method and responsibility for booking and payment of fares should be clearly agreed upon by the parties to this contract).
6. Any Other Terms Specific to this Contract:
 - a) The appointment of a llama judge will be made by the Convener of each show, using the RAS approved list of Judges. Sponsorship will be obtained to cover expenses, competitors are NOT to be levied (as per RAS instructions 2006).
 - b) The Judge is to become especially familiar with the following Rule "THE JUDGE - we wish to make it very clear that the Judge is to have NO contact with competitors from commencement of showing until the end of judging. At the Canterbury 3 day show there is to be NO personal contact with competitors from one week before the show until the end of judging on the Friday".

NB: This Contract is to be forwarded to the Judge in Duplicate. The Judge is to retain one copy and return the other completed copy to the Convenor in accordance with these terms and conditions.
