4. Entrants will be judged initially within their region. Six regional winners become finalists for the award. See RAS website www.ras.org.nz for delineation of District boundaries.
5. Entrants must be prepared to attend a regional panel interview at a time and date set by the organizers. The regional panel interviews will be held in April/May 2019 at the following locations: Northern District – either Whangarei or Auckland, Mid Northern District - Hamilton, Eastern District – either Hawkes Bay or Gisborne, Western District – either Palmerston North or Wanganui, Central District – either Blenheim or Christchurch and Southern District either Dunedin or Invercargill so some travel at the entrant's cost may be required dependent on where they live and what region they reside in.
6. The RAS reserves the right to re-run this competition if the entry numbers are low.
7. Finalists must be prepared to attend a panel interview in New Plymouth on Saturday 22 June at the RAS Conference. (Conference dates are 21-22 June 2019. Finalists are invited to attend the RAS conference meetings while they are there.) That night at the conference dinner, finalists will be required to make a 2-3 minute speech as part of their finals interview process. NB: Accommodation for one-two nights for finalist (may be on a share basis with other finalists) and air flights if applicable will be paid for.
8. The regional and final interview may cover any of the following:
 - i) Knowledge of their particular industry and achievements
 - ii) Future goals, long term view of their industry, future objectives
 - iii) Communication and social skills, along with general knowledge
 - iv) Showing background and ambitions in this field.
 - v) Interests, hobbies and community involvement/awareness
 - vi) Some knowledge of the RAS movement/NZ Young Farmers/Harcourts NZ.
9. The overall winner will be asked to undertake ambassadorial duties at key events e.g. RAS Conference, HNZ Conference, Royal A&P Show and/or Royal Events and/or local shows.
10. The overall winner must be available to represent New Zealand at the Australasian Competition in 2020 which is due to be held in New Zealand at the NZ Royal A&P Show in October.
11. The entrant gives permission for all of the information submitted by them as part of their entry to be used by the organisers for the purposes of this Award and this information may be used for advertising/promotional purposes should the entrant become a finalist/winner.
12. All finalists will be notified by e-mail. Any information submitted by entrants becomes the property of the organizer and will not be returned.
13. All prizes are to be accepted as given and are not redeemable for cash or other products. Regional winners will win a cash prize of $500.00. Overall winner of the HNZ-RAS Rural Ambassador will receive a jacket, $2000 cash prize and air flights (if applicable) to Hawkes Bay to represent NZ. (Two nights accommodation will be paid for by the RAS of NZ.) It is expected that $1000 of the prize money will be used for travel/accommodation for any key ambassadorial duties undertaken.
14. The judges' decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered in to.
15. The entrant agrees to abide by the rules of the competition as outlined above.
16. District finalists will be invited on their District Council
